Alan Cherepon (TCEQ) provided a summary of his activities the first half of FY 2025, and very little water quality issues were addressed by others, as this subject continues to be a lower priority for the U.S. EPA. The next Fall pesticide program meeting will be hosted by the U.S. EPA in Dallas in October 2025 and it will be a hybrid format again. The 2026 Spring grant meeting will be hosted by New Mexico. The previous U.S. EPA Region 6 Pesticide Section Supervisor, Amy Comacho, retired in June 2025.</li> </ul>
